

REGISTER NOW

Register now to participate in creating a strategic action plan for leveraging climate change initiatives and mobilizing government and institutional investors to capitalize on $12 trillion worth of investment and partnership opportunities in infrastructure, green-energy transition, and climate change in Africa. Let's foster long-term partnerships that benefit US and African businesses and promote Africa's development and growth.

INTRODUCTION

The African Infrastructure, Climate Change, and Investment Summit (AICIS) + Exhibit is a significant event taking place from September. 5 th -8 th , 2023, at the Hyatt Regency Crystal City, 2799 Richmond Hwy, Arlington, VA 22202, Washington DC. Please, login to our website for more information: <https://www.abvig.com/aicis-washington-dc>

OPPORTUNITY

Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to be part of the African Infrastructure, Climate Change, and Investment Summit (AICIS) + Exhibit. Present and former African Heads of State, the United Nations, African Union, private sectors, and heads of CSOs are being invited. The event includes the Summit Opening Ceremony, Plenary, and Executive workshop-breakout Sessions, Dinner, Participation Certificates, and an Award Night. It targets to bring together more than 1,500 participants, including 150 exhibitors and stakeholders from all sectors, to discuss and address key issues affecting Africa's development and growth.

TARGET

The African Infrastructure, Climate Change, and Investment Summit (AICIS) is establishing partnerships and collaborations with several prestigious organizations, such as Global Legislators Organization for Balanced Environment (GLOBE), private sectors, captains of industry, and INGOs/CSOs both in the United States of America and Africa, and is inviting Africa's Development stakeholders/ partners including the US Presidency through the Office of the Vice President of the United States of America, Vice President, to solicit its support to the AICIS. Additionally, the US Secretary of State, and the Special Presidential Envoy for Climate. The AICIS is gathering support from the diplomatic community including various African embassies and mission's resident in the US. The Nigerian embassy in Washington DC, Ghana, D.R.C., (the ECOWAS), and the United States Embassies in Nigeria, Ghana, Kenya, and others to participate our event.

AFRICA INFRASTRUCTURE, CLIMATE CHANGE AND INVESTMENT SUMMIT (AICIS) + EXHIBITION WASHINGTON DC, USA

 SEP 5th - 8th, 2023

Taking place at;
Hyatt Regency Crystal City, 2799
Richmond Hwy, Arlington, VA
22202, Washington DC

THE ORGANIZERS

ABVIG focuses on promoting international trade and investment in infrastructure, energy, mining, trade, Technology, aiming to facilitate foreign direct investment through its services. Endorsement of the Ministry of trade, Ghana, the Federal Ministry of Industries, Trade and Investment, and the office of the permanent representative of Nigeria to the ECOWAS Commission, ABVIG successfully organized the West Africa Infrastructure, Energy, Mining, Trade and Investment Summit (WAIEMTI 2018), under the theme; Solving Energy challenge and increasing Economic growth to Accelerate Regional Integration & Development through Harnessing Energy, Mining & Trade opportunities in West Africa, 5 th -7 th December 2018. Its second edition (WAIEMTI 2019), tagged 'Tackling Africa's Infrastructure and Economic Challenges While Enhancing Investment and Trade Opportunities was held in Accra, Ghana from 27th To 31 st August 2019. ABVIG Partners includes Aidez Small Project International (ASPI), a partner of USAID, Project C.A.R.E International, WFP, Ministry of Industry, Trade and Investment Nigeria, Ghana among others. ABVIG participated in the USA Energy Summit Pittsburgh in 2022 and the US-Africa Business Summit in December 2022, Please Visit www.abvig.com for more information.

SPECIAL ADVISORS

- HRM. King Alfred Diète-Spif, Rtd general of the Nigerian Army & ex State governor, River State Nigeria - African Union Envoy for traditional ruler's council
- H.E (Dr.) Yakubu A. Dadu - Ambassador, Diplomatic communication. (ambassador of what county)
- Prof. Chris Schrage - CGBP, Instructor of Marketing, Global initiatives coordinator, University of Northern Iowa, USA
- Prof. Shah Siraji - Director, Project Development, USA

CONTACT:

For more information, please contact:
Summit Co-ordinator or Chairman

Administrative Secretariat:
(+1) 4122 879 069, (+1) 703 870029

Africa Secretariat Nigeria:
+234 70329 41519/+234 905 625 5065

Email: aicis@abvig.com
website: <https://www.abvig.com/aicis-washington-dc>

COLLABORATORS AND PARTNERS

To ensure the successful event, AICIS has also Identified the following institutions and others to be invited as collaborators and partners:

- US Department of Energy
- Africa's Ministry of Energy, Ministry of industries, trade and investments, ministry of foreign Affairs
- The Business Council for Sustainable Energy (BCSE), Clean Energy Business Network, Discover Global Markets business development forum of the U.S. Department of Commerce
- Information marketing and management institute
- The Climate Investment Funds (CIF), many of which are the least equipped yet the most susceptible to the problems of climate change.
- US Corporate Council on Africa
- Global Migration Research Institute (GMRI), USA
- US Department of Energy, International Affairs
- The US state department
- Africa's diplomatic missions in the United States
- National Space Research and Development Agency (NASRDA), Nigeria.
- The Institute of International Peace Leaders (IIPL UN Geneva) Africa Region

CARRIERS

- Delta Air Lines
- Ethiopian Airlines
- Royal Air Maroc
- Kenya Airways and others

PLANNING AND ORGANIZING TEAM

Hon. Moses O.T Owharo

Convener & Chairman, Planning Committee, Africa
Diaspora Investment Forum, Presidential Liaison Officer

Ms. Lulieta Zhilla

Summit Co-ordinator

OBJECTIVES

- The Summit aim is to bring together more than 1,500 participants including government officials, institutional investors, business executives, small business enterprises (SMEs), and project owners to exploit the investment and partnership opportunity in the more 12 trillion US$ business opportunity in the infrastructure, Green- energy transition and climate change, Space & Digital/AI technology Infrastructure in Africa. Development actors including NGOs, Diaspora, Multi- national and present a platform to assessment Africa economic and security infrastructure, identify new development partners and focusing on increasing and mobilizing development resources to contribute to Africa accelerated development mission by the US and other countries.
- To provide trade development partnership and export opportunities between the US and Africa governments and private sector businesses.
- Activities includes Summit opening ceremony, plenary session, breakout executive workshops on Africa Oil & Gas. Power/Electricity/Renewable Energy, Security, Africa Mining, Africa Trade & Investment/Import & Export promotion/ Exhibition, Agriculture, IT/AI, Diaspora, Dinner and certificates and award presentation ceremony.
- To mobilize and bring together government and institutional investors to exploit the investment and partnership opportunity in the more 12 trillion US$ business opportunity in the infrastructure, Green- energy transition and climate change in Africa.
- To mobilize sustainable resources, solution and partnership for Africa Infrastructure, Energy/ power and Climate Change initiatives.
- It is also aimed amongst others, to optimally harness the infrastructural development projects and investment opportunities in Africa for promotion, increase federal government will, international investors' interests, the economic potentials of the continent in terms of Macro, Medium and Small Enterprises (MSME) and entrepreneurial capacity building, identifications and development of talents, attracting both local and foreign direct investments in different sectors and diversification of the continent's economy in line with zero oil initiatives development of the Federal Government of Nigeria.
- To mobilize resources globally to support the Africa continental, regional and national infrastructure, support her initiative climate change and industrialization plan and in line with the Africa Continental Free Trade Agreement programs.